

"BABY BARB" BARBERA D'ASTI, DOCG, 2009

La Mondianese

La Mondianese

The 6-acre Mondianese farm, located in the hilly area of Montemagno ("big hill") and Castagnole Monferrato in the province of Asti, has a cellar equipped with state-of-the-art encology.

Untouched by any oak, this is a pure example of what the Barbera grape is all about. Meant to be drunk young, this clean, fresh and fruity wine has a just a hint of acidity.

Region: Piedmont

Classification: Barbera D'Asti DOCG

Area of Production: Monferrato Hills

Grape Variety: 100% Barbera

Soil: Medium texture

Average Age of Vines: 8 years

Trellising System: Guyot

Spacing of Plants: 2.50 x 0.80 meters

Production per Acre: 2.68 tons

Vinification Technique: Stainless Steel

Maturation: Stainless Steel

Total Acidity: 5.90 g/l

Residual Sugar: 2.5 g/l

PH: 3.50

Alcohol: 13.30%

Total Cases Produced: 230